

The Occasional Series on Australian Editors

The concept for the Occasional Series on Australian Editors (OSAE) oral, print and digital project was inspired by One of the First and One of the Finest: Beatrice Davis, Book Editor, published by the Society of Editors (Victoria) in 1991. The monograph was commissioned by Lisa Berryman, edited by Elizabeth Wood-Ellem, and designed by Sandra Nobes. The Melbourne book launch coincided with the twenty-first anniversary of the Society of Editors on 3 October 1991. On 28 February 1992 an honorary doctorate was conferred on Beatrice by the University of Sydney. On 24 May 1992 Beatrice Deloitte Davis passed away, aged 83 years. In the same year the Beatrice Davis Editorial Fellowship was announced and offered in Australia.

One of the First and One of the Finest: Beatrice Davis, Book Editor is a beautifully produced slim monograph, including photographs selected from Beatrice's personal collection.

Limited copies are available at $10 each (see the order form below).

The Occasional Series on Australian Editors working group: Diane Brown (convenor), Kerry Biram, Jenny Craig and Deb Candy.
